Desert Dreaming

THERESE RAWSTHORNE

The Look

Inspired by an Arizonian road trip, Rawsthorne's collection had a glamorous ease of sensuality about it. Casual, almost randomly draped fabric made the shape of floaty dresses, which were contrasted with tailored blazers over leggings. Earthy neutrals, creams, mauves and pitch black dominated the collection, with exciting blasts of desert red and spiky floral prints in the mix.

CND's Finishing Touch

Nude nails were harmonious with simplistic, natural makeup. CND Putty was applied to medium length square nails for the finishing touch to every outfit.
